Hon. Mason Maney Speaks at Court House.

Hon. Mason Maney of Pearsall, candidate for Congress from the 15th Texas district, spoke to a small audience at the court house Thursday night. His speech was largely devoted to a criticism of Judge Garner's record while in Congress and he said he would have voted differently on certain measures had he been in Judge Garner's place—would have favored some measures which Mr. Garner has opposed. He ridiculed the claim that Garner is an influential man in Congress when the only protection he could save for products of the "hardest hit district" in the United States was the tariff on goats. In fact, Mr. Maney seems to find little in Mr. Garner's record to commend.

He says if elected he will favor a primary highway along the Rio Grande and will work to secure reclamation appropriations to build irrigation reservoirs along the Texas streams.

Mr. Maney talked for nearly two hours. He is an easy, logical speaker and made out a strong case for himself from his point of view. This was the first time our people had heard him and while he as a man and a speaker made a favorable impression for himself, it is doubtful if the speech will affect one way or the other his race against Judge Garner, the present incumbent whom he wishes to succeed.

Firemen Elect.

At the annual election of officers of the Volunteer Fire Company held Monday night the old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year.

The following are the officers: E. H. Ney, President; Felix Batot, Secretary; F. A. Martin, Treasurer; C. J. Bless, Chief; Otto Liebold, Assistant Chief; Will Ney, Foreman Hook and Ladder Wagon; S. G. Carter, Assistant; J. J. Droticourt, Foreman Chemical No. 1; Charles Schuchle, Assistant; John Mechler, Foreman Chemical Engine No. 2; L. A. Mechler, assistant.

The fire company is now out of debt, owns its own building, two large chemical fire extinguishers, one being a double drum, a well equipped hook and ladder outfit, a number of small extinguishers and several hundred feet of hose. All of the apparatus is in good condition.

The company needs a few more young and active members.

A Sister P. E. O. Explains.

No! No! Bro. Davis, that Park with its myriad of weeds has been on our minds all the time. We had never forgotten it but have had a weary time of waiting. At first we waited for it to stop raining. Since then we have been waiting our chance to get the convict labor as it costs us so much less than to hire the work done in the ordinary manner and I'm sure as you are one of our good B. I. Ls that you do not blame us for being just a wee bit economical with our little Bank Account? A Sister P. E. O.

THE ALPHABET OF THE HUDSON SIX

A Six is fundamentally better than a Four for the following reasons:—

Because of its six cylinders there are no dead centers. Power is continuously applied. The basic superiority of the Six is all in that statement.

Cylinders are subject to lower explosive strain; hence can be made lighter, thinner, are more easily cooled, cast less to build.

Direct drive—or high gear—is used practically all the time. One may slow down to a snail's pace in congested traffic, or take almost any hill without changing gears.

Every drop of force in the fuel is utilized to move a Six along the road. In the four much power is consumed in overcoming inertia of heavy parts.

Fly-wheel weight can be less in a Six, because it is under constant torque, no dead centers. Hence steadier running and quicker pick-up.

Gyroscopic effect of steady motion of Six makes easier steering, holds road better, makes pleasanter riding.

Heaviness and "logyness" of so many Fours is entirely absent in Hudson Light Six. It seems to skim over the roads and hills without effort.

Initial cost of a Hudson Light Six is less than you are asked for inferior Fours.

Just as the Two displaced the One, and the Four the Two, so the Six has conquered the Four. Simply progress and improvement.

Knowledge of what the Hudson Six-40 will do is all that is needed to sell it to any prospect.

Light weight—as in the Hudson Six-40—insures light gasoline and tire bills.

Merely because there have been thousands of Four-cylinder cars sold is no reason why they are as good as Sixes. People used candles before electric lights were discovered.

Not a man who once uses a Six ever goes back to a Four. "There's a reason."

Only people who cannot afford to pay over $1,000 for a car are now buying Fours.

Practically every important manufacturer now features a Six as his "best" car.

Quick pick-up in difficult situations is a valuable quality of the Hudson Six-40.

Racing officials at Indianapolis speedway will hereafter require contestants to measure not over 300 cubic inches cylinder area. The Hudson Light Six is 288 cubic inches.

Six small cylinders burn no more gas than Four large cylinders; and they apply the power more smoothly and economically.

The easiest way to prove the wonderful qualities of the Hudson Six-40 is to drive it five miles.

Under equal conditions the Six will beat the Four at EVERY THING.

Victory is the shadow of the Hudson Six.

When in doubt buy a Hudson Six—is Hoyle "down to date."

Xenophon never recorded anything half so wonderful as the rise to dominance of the Hudson Motor Car Company.

You will never know the full meaning of motor-car satisfaction until you own your Hudson Six.

Zero in automobile knowledge—the man who THINKS any other car is as good as the Hudson Six-40.

The first 1915 model Six-40 for this territory is due to arrive by Wells-Fargo Express Tuesday, July 21st. Don't fail to see it.

A large number of land owners in Medina County assembled at the court house last Saturday afternoon, pursuant to the call of Judge H. E. Haas and Joe Ney, to consider what is to be done about the Glass claim to certain lands in Medina County. The Glasses are claiming title to a certain number of surveys in the old Henry Castro colony lands based upon a tax title of over fifty years ago and some of the land owners have been in peaceable possession of their lands for almost half a century. These same claimants have heretofore brought suit in the Federal court against some of the owners of lands involved and by harassing them in the courts caused them to compromise by buying off at a nominal sum their purported claims, and it is believed to be their purpose to try this plan on a more extended scale. After giving this matter due consideration, the land owners decided to stand together and resist by legal process any action that might be taken by the Glasses, and so notified the lawyers for the same.

To The Voters of Medina County.

Is Mr. Doughty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, entitled to our votes?

The above question is asked of the voters of Medina County for them to answer at the coming primary election by their vote and is based upon the unqualified rejection of the application of our worthy County Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. N. Saathoff, to be appointed as a member of the State Board of Examiners, and is a slap in the face of our educational advancement as a county unworthy of the recognition she deserves. Our County is one of the foremost Counties in the state as to educational progress, financially and otherwise, all of which was forcibly presented to Mr. Doughty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in person by Mr. V. H. Blocker and by petitions and letters asking that our county be recognized by appointing Mr. Saathoff on the state board of normal school examiners. Yet by some political hook and pull Mr. Doughty appointed Mr. Evans, who is the Conductor of the Alpine Normal Summer School, and who has served on the State Board of Examiners several times and as such will, necessarily, have to pass upon the reports of his own normal students. Mr. Doughty thereby ignoring the rights of Medina County as a Progressive Educational County and the fairness and justness of having the reports of normal students passed upon by members of the State Board of Examiners, unbiased and unprejudiced by fear or the hope of reward.

Now can you vote for Mr. Doughty, voters of Medina County?

A MEDINA COUNTY VOTER.

Davidson Endorsed.

Hondo, Texas, July 16, 1914.

We, the undersigned members of the Medina County bar, believing that the Hon. W. L. Davidson of Williamson County has proven to be one of the ablest judges that the State of Texas has ever had upon its Court of Criminal Appeals, and that it would be a misfortune to the State to have him defeated in his candidacy for reelection to a position on said court, do now heartily endorse him for reelection and recommend to the voters of Medina County that they cast their votes for him at the coming Democratic primaries.

God's Answer.

Once in a time of trouble and of care
I dreamed I talked with God about my pain;
With sleep and courage, daring to complain
Of what I deemed ungracious and unfair.
"Lord, I have groveled on my knees
in prayer Hour after hour, I cried; "yet all in vain;
No hand leads up to heights I would attain,
No path is shown me out of my despair."

Then answered God: "Three things I gave to thee
Clear brain, brave will, and strength
of mind and heart,
All implements divine to shape the way.
Why shift the burden of thy toil on me?
Till to the utmost he has done his part
With all his might let no man dare
to pray."

As the campaign progresses evidence multiplies that the corporate interests and designing politicians "put one over" the real, genuine prohibitionists when they eliminated all of the genuine pros. from the governor's race and set up for their candidate a man who belongs to and patronizes a high-toned drinking club where members are served with alcoholic drinks at all hours in all the days of the week. A man who serves champagne on his own table. A man who as a stockholder in a concern doing business under a wholesale liquor dealer's license profits from the sale of liquor every time he receives a dividend from that concern. And, worse still, a man who as a director in this same concern has been particeps criminis in efforts to evade the local option laws of the state. These are facts that Col. Ball can not successfully deny. And yet because of the blind, unreasoning prejudice against any and every thing not bearing the name of prohibition, this "high-toned liquor dealer" has the effrontery to pose in the saintly robes of prohibition and ask for the votes of men who condemn what he practices with the assurance that their prejudice and not their reason will accord him their support.

ONE more week and the present political agony will be over.
If the people are wise they will elect Jim Ferguson and defeat submission by such a majority as to forever estop designing politicians from making a stalking horse of prohibition. Then and not until then will our statesmen turn their attention to constructive legislation and the state be given an opportunity to go forward in material development as it should. If you want to have a hand in forwarding this good work your only opportunity lies at the polls on primary election day. And it is your duty as a patriotic citizen to go to the polls and exercise your privilege of making your choice of men and measures on that occasion. No matter what you are at other times, be a patriot July 25th.

ELSEWHERE will be found a sample of the primary ballot to be used in the primary election next Saturday. Don't take this ticket with you to the polls—as that would be against the law—but study it until you have familiarized yourself with it and can prepare it as you want it to be. Show it to your neighbors and see that every one understands how to vote and all take your poll-tax receipts with you and go to the polls and vote
your choice of men and measures. Your opportunity comes next Saturday; after that it will be past.

HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these qualities from ordinary foods which results in weakness, dullness and sickness.
If your children are under-size, underweight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-food for children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.

Among The Boosters For The Dry Farming Congress

San Antonio, Texas, July 7th, 1914.

Mr. Fletcher Davis, Sec. Tex. Dry Farming Cong., Hondo, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

I am just in receipt of your kind invitation to address the Farmers' Congress at Hondo some time during the session. I will state that I shall be very glad to be with you if you can place me on the program on the 18th, or 19th as I will have to leave early in order to reach College Station on the morning of the 20th.
As you have been so kind to allow me to choose the subject I will select the following, "What The Demonstration Work Means to The Texas Boys and Girls," while you will understand that my talk will be of interest to the adult farmer it will be doubly so to the boys and girls and I shall insist that you have as many of them as possible present at the hour you designate for me to address your people. Please send me a copy of your program as early as possible so that I may know exactly how to arrange my work here so as to be on hand in due time.

Yours very truly,

Texas Dry Farming Congress To Meet.

The sixth annual meeting of the Texas Dry Farming congress will be held in Hondo,
Medina county, on August 18, 19 and 20. The officers of the Congress are Dr. Benj. F. Berkley of Alpine, president; A. J.
Durham of Sabinal, vice-president, and Fletcher Davis of Hondo, secretary.

The Texas Dry Farming Congress was organized in 1909 and since has held annual meetings, which have grown in interest and attendance. The next meeting at Hondo promises
much to those who attend.

Hondo is situated on the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio railroad, and is 50 miles west of San Antonio. It is surrounded by an extremely fertile territory and abounds in many natural resources. It is about an hour's automobile ride from the demonstration farms of the world-famous Medina Valley Irrigation company, to see which alone would be worth the trip.
Hondo invites you to attend her 1914 session of the congress,
August 18, 19 and 20.—Farm

COL. Ball has an opportunity now to meet the flat-footed charge that he is not a prohibi-tionist in practice and that he has not been fair with his friends in the pro organization. In a speech at Smithville last Saturday Jonathan Lane of Houston said that Mr. Ball is a member of the Houston club with him and that he frequently took highballs and played cards with him. Lane said that he did not believe that was any harm and did not censure Ball for the same, but thought the harm was in Ball telling the people that he neither drank or played cards.
In his speeches Mr. Ball says that he does not drink the drinks or play the games. Mr. Lane says that he does. It is clear out—the issue is joined. It is up to Col. Ball to answer Mr.
Lane. They are fellow townsmen, fellow club members, associates at the same bar (legal).
If Mr. Lane is misrepresenting his neighbor, he ought to be exposed for it.—Waco Tribune.

JOHN Garner says he can't come out and look after his West Texas fences and leaves it to his friends. With the stupendous silence his opponent is making in West Texas John don't need any fences. Everybody out this way knows the old trail,
and will get to the watering place on the twenty-fifth of this month.—West Texas Magazine.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by All Dealers.

HON. W. P. HOBBY

Editor of the Beaumont Enterprise, Has Announced His Candidacy for Lieutenant Governor, Subject to the Action of the Democratic Franchise.

The Hon. Wm. P. Hobby, editor and owner of the Beaumont Enterprise, made official announcement on June 14th, of his candidacy for Lieutenant Governor of Texas, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries, July 26th.

Mr. Hobby has been connected with newspapers nearly all of his life. Prior to the time of his taking over the Beaumont Enterprise, he was associated with the Houston Post in an editorial capacity.

The files of those papers give evidence of his splendid work for the betterment of the material interests of the state, as well as its social and religious welfare. He has at all times been in hearty sympathy with the people. Born and reared in Texas, he has thought Texas, talked Texas, and is one among the public-spirited Texans who is devoting his life to the upbuilding of Texas and her various interests, through his great paper, the Beaumont Enterprise.

He is a broad, liberal man; a public-spirited humanitarian; a true friend and an honest foe; a self-made man who knows life; a man possessed of a desire to aid in the uplift and advancement of Texas and one who is capable of doing things, and who is using his talents toward that end.

The following is a few excerpts from his platform:

Excerpts From Platform of W. P. Hobby.

(Published in full in the Sunday papers of Texas June 14, 1914.)

"As president of the senate I would favor the employment of experts by the legislature for the purpose of examining all laws in advance of their enactment and so constructing laws that they may be relieved of ambiguity and clearly express the intent of the lawmakers. I believe the employment of such experts, with duties of course that are merely clerical, will be a step of progress that will prove economical to the state and save confusion and money to the people.

Appropriation bills are considered by the senate, when in committee of the whole, where the lieutenant governor has the right to debate and vote. I would apply the same principles to the appropriation of public funds for the various institutions of the state that I have always applied in the conduct of my private business.

I am in favor of increasing the efficiency and usefulness of our state institutions. Every sound and honest man would use care and economy when spending a trust fund, and that would be the rule with me. At the same time I would provide each year a higher standard for both our educational and eleemosynary institutions. What money it takes to keep Texas in the van of progress we can well afford to spend so long as it is done judiciously and I am mistaken in the patriotism of our citizens if it is not their wish to provide the best system of learning for our youth and the best means of relief for our afflicted.

The Land Question.

In my judgment the land question is one that should receive most careful consideration at the hands of our people. It is an issue that we must face squarely and solve wisely. Of the farms in Texas 219,575 are farmed by tenants and 195,363 are farmed by owners. Tenantry should be but a temporary condition, leading to that better state when the owner and the tiller of the land are one and the same. History shows that the best and most enduring basis of civilization is home ownership. Tenant farmers are increasing more rapidly than farm owners and that is why the problem needs solution. The hope for an advanced development of the agricultural resources of Texas rests in the ownership of land by the man who produces what it yields. It means a wealthier state and a more contented citizenship.

Thoughtful men must realize that it will take years of careful deliberation before the land problem can be satisfactorily worked out, and while I am in favor of remedial legislation now, I will, if elected, urge the appointment of a legislative, or at least a senate committee, charged with the duty of investigating and giving thorough study to the question and recommending such laws and public policy as will aid the farmer to become the owner of the land he makes productive.

Floods and Reclamation.

I am in favor of reclaiming the swamp and overflow lands of Texas; conserving the flood waters that rise from our rivers; and levees and dikes to protect the area that is so frequently inundated. To this end I would increase the scope and facilities of the state reclamation department with a view to having this work more speedily undertaken by the state or subdivisions thereof.

ly undertaken by the state or subdivisions thereof.

Agriculture is admittedly the foremost of all Texas resources. With a land area of approximately 168,000,000 acres of which 120,000,000 acres are tillable, while but 30,000,000 acres are improved, the attention of the state should be given to extending the agricultural industry. I, therefore, favor strengthening the agricultural department of the state to aid in promoting the development of the soil and increasing the area that is cultivated.

I am in favor of and have for seven years employed organized labor. I favor strengthening the labor department of the state to aid in bettering the condition of those who are employed and would, if elected, give recognition to those who represent the interests of organized labor.

I favor a law or laws that will simplify our civil and criminal codes and lessen the formalities and technicalities of court procedure.

I have no program for changes in our laws that relate to corporations, insurance companies and banks. However, I favor passing laws that will help the development of Texas, with justice to the whole people, and without injury to any class or interest.

I favor nominations by a majority vote in state primaries.

I believe contributions to campaigns by corporations or favor-seeking interests should be forbidden by law and the payment of fees to public officers, state, county or precinct, should be forbidden by law.

For Material Progress.

If it were in my power to shape the public policy of Texas I would turn the mind of the people to its material progress. To make the countless acres of this state produce more and to cause thriving cities to sustain a greater growth ought to be the object of our lawmakers and the tendency of our laws.

My idea is that the welfare of Texas will be best served by giving our attention to the agricultural and industrial development of the state, passing laws that will increase the earnings of the farmer, such as providing an improved warehouse system; better marketing facilities and a rural credit plan; surrounding the laboring man and the farmer alike with the fullest protection in following their pursuits; and give greater and wider opportunity to the business man. That will make Texas grow and will add to the happiness of the people.

COMMENT OF TEXAS PAPERS

Upon the Candidacy for Lieutenant Governor of Hon. W. P. Hobby, of Beaumont, Texas.

The platform on which Mr. W. P. Hobby, of Beaumont, predicated his candidacy for the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor is brief, to the point and altogether admirable. It is so sound in every respect, in fact, that it is difficult to pick therefrom any particular plank seemingly deserving of greater commendation than its companions. A man who entertains such views as these and who undoubtedly is sincere in them, and who would unquestionably wage unceasing war in their defense, if necessary, could not possibly serve otherwise than with honor.—Houston Telegraph.

W. P. Hobby, editor of the Beaumont Enterprise, has announced as a candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas. Judging from the editorial columns of the Beaumont Enterprise, Mr. Hobby is a capable man, and would no doubt fill the office well.—Rusk Press Journal.

W. P. Hobby, editor and manager of the Beaumont Enterprise, formally announces his candidacy for lieutenant governor, and from all appearances he is an excellent man for the place.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

W. P. Hobby, of the Beaumont Enterprise, has entered the race for lieutenant governor. Mr. Hobby is a good newspaper man, and his paper comes to our desk daily. The people of Texas will not be doing wrong in electing him to this office.—Cherokee Sun.

W. P. Hobby, editor and general manager of the Beaumont Enterprise, has announced for lieutenant governor. Mr. Hobby has been in the newspaper game for a number of years and is a man of splendid ability. There is no doubt that he will make the state a most satisfactory president of the senate if he is elected.—Greenville Evening Banner.

William P. Hobby, candidate for lieutenant governor, is a bright young man. He is a broad and progressive young man. He believes in the Ferguson plank for the reason that it will serve as a temporary relief to the tenant, and in the Ball plank, because it will lead to the tenant farmer becoming a home owner. Will Hobby is a newspaper man. A real news paper man never goes crazy on issues. He takes the good and the bad or the bad and the good and does the best he can.—Fort Worth Record.

The Waco Tribune says that Billie Mayes, a newspaper man, was useful and won prestige as lieutenant governor of Texas, and asks why Billie Hobby, another Texas newspaper man, should not do likewise. The Morning Times seconds the suggestion and moves that we let a Billie continue to do the work.—El Paso Times.

Will P. Hobby, of Beaumont, has announced as a candidate for lieutenant governor. Mr. Hobby is a most excellent man and qualified in every way to serve the state well. He is a son of Judge Hobby, a former district judge of his district—your father's and my father's friend—and it would be a deserving compliment for Liberty county to give Mr. Hobby a unanimous vote.—Liberty Vindicator.

THE CALL OF THE FARM

No Machine Made Governor Wanted.

Candidates and Platforms Should Be Carefully Selected And Compared With Farmers' Union Views.

Fort Worth.—The official cancellation of the Ft. Worth Convention on April 14th clears the gubernatorial atmosphere and the governor's race now rests between the candidates of the July primary. We want to call the attention of the farmers to the importance of selecting the one best acquainted and most in sympathy with the farmers and to carefully scrutinize the platforms of candidates.

We opposed both pro and anti conventions with such ability as we possessed. We can conceive of no greater calamity to Texas than to elect a machine-made governor at this time and any man who will cower under the lash of the bull whip of the bosses and who will kneel and lick the boots of the mighty politicians has not in him the stuff that governors should be made of. Any kind of a bird can seek shelter in a convention hall, but it takes an eagle to soar in the storm-tossed heavens in defiance of the "powers that be." This state needs a governor who will face men fearlessly and meet issues bravely and to elect a man who does not possess these qualifications would be a blunder little less than a crime.

Study Men and Measures.

The Farmers' Union, as an organization, is not in partisan politics, but the Union is officially committed to the Radford policies of government by the endorsement of the Farmers' Union State Convention and the candidate whose views most nearly approximate those of the Union and who offers the most convincing proof of writing them into our organic law is entitled to the support of farmers and all citizens who consider the material welfare of Texas of paramount importance in this campaign. All farmers should supply themselves with a copy of the Farmers' Union platform and that of the candidates and study and compare them for the purpose of determining which one of the candidates is most favorable to the interests of the farmer. We will send copy of the Farmers' Union platform to any address and we presume copies of the platform of the candidates can be secured on application to them.

In studying the candidates and platforms we want to issue a word of counsel and warning to the farmers of Texas, to the end that reason may not be debauched by prejudice, understanding supplanted by distrust and the welfare of the farmer suborned by political schemers.

Let us subject both candidates and platforms to a strict business test for on no other basis can we hope to unite our forces.

Put "Romans on Guard."

While no occupation, if legitimate, should disqualify any man for the office of governor, yet the experience and surroundings of a candidate determine their efficiency for gubernatorial responsibilities. We can locate a man who nurses at the breasts of special interests as well qualified to deal with agricultural problems as one whose daily life feels the heart throbs of the farmers, for it takes heart as well as brain to interpret the needs and supply the wants of the Texas farmers at this time.

The Farmers' Union wants no liquor legislation during the next administration and all legislation of whatever character should be subordinated to the needs of the farmers, and those who join in this opinion should vote for a candidate for governor who is a part of the agricultural fibre of state and familiar with the business transactions of the farmer. To properly manage a business administration requires a man equipped by experience and ability to cope with the problems of agriculture and commerce backed by a legislature composed in the main of farmers and business men. Too long have we permitted our destinies to be shaped largely by men whose personal ambition overshadowed the public welfare and during the incoming administration let us put nobody but "Romans on guard."

The farmer has never taken much initiative in governmental affairs. Candidates have been groomed and issues framed up as a rule by city men and the farmer had no alternative in many instances but to choose between two or more evils. The politicians have been ordering the farmer to cry aloud for the sins of the cities and we have cried. The politicians have told us how to vote to save the country and we voted and after the election was over the legislatures have told us to stand aside until special interests were served or chastised, as the case might be, and we have obeyed but while we wept, were saved and waited, a line of fallen homes a hundred miles in length (if stood side by side) annually marks the state's pathway; a half million acres of products have rotted on the ground each year for want of a market and we have been paying from ten to thirty per cent interest per annum on $220,000,000. This has been the result of a lifetime of fighting for principles. Let us unite in this campaign, fighting for men in the executive and legislative branches of government who will stand by the farmers.

Rally Around the Union.

This is not a stone age and man's opinion should be adamant. When mental petrification begins progress ends and a closed mind is an abomination to God and a menace to good government. We plead with you to lay aside sentiment, to eliminate prejudice and to break the shackles of superstition that may bind you and in this campaign to serve the interests of those who are near and dear to you.

We appeal to the farmers of Texas to reason together. Consider the wife who toils by your side and whom you covenanted in holy bonds of wedlock to provide for and protect; give heed to the welfare of the innocent children that God Almighty gave you to gladden your heart as happily they play upon your knees and kiss from your cheek the smudge of toil; then think of your own flesh and blood as you battle to shelter the heads and cheer the hearts of those whom you love.

We beg you to discharge the responsibilities that God in His wisdom has placed upon you in preference to the one the politician in his hunger has forced upon you. May we again plead with the farmers of Texas to rally around the Union and in the July primary cast their ballot for John Sully and the babies?

HELP THE TENANT FARMER

The Tenant Farmer is the Backbone of Agriculture.

Vote For Sally and the Babies

Fort Worth, Texas.—Before discussing the tenant farmer, we want to state that we hope in this campaign that the consideration of the principles of state government will not be permanently interrupted by the search of the sewers of the private lives of candidates. We feel sure the farmers of this State would like to have pointed out to them new-found pathways of progress rather than to be shown skeletons in family closets. Good government we believe as contingent upon sound policies as upon clean men. Both are essential and neither should be minimized.

A few newspapers have opened their columns to hate and spite and political preachers have in some instances succumbed to temptations to misrepresent. The Texas Christian Advocate, the official organ of the Methodist Church, recently carried an editorial entitled "The Saloon Under The Masque Of The Farmers' Union" which contained many misrepresentations concerning the writers. We had hoped that the religious press would keep free from the influence of church politicians, but when those whom the Lord anointed to teach us how to pray deliberately lead us into temptation and deliver us unto evil, we can hardly hope for the press and the forum to keep free from iniquity.

Tenant Farmer Holds Pivotal Position.

The tenant farmer is the most talked of individual in Texas today. All candidates are featuring him in their discussions and when the spell-binders want to make the American eagle scream and soar to giddy heights of fame, they sprinkle star-dust on the tenant farmer. There has been enough printer's ink used in his behalf in this campaign to swim a team of mules and his problems are being discussed from the Red River to the Gulf.

He is the most important factor in agriculture; the most powerful citizen at the polls and from a neglected and unappreciated position in civilization he has become recognized as the bone and sinew of agriculture and well he may, for he cultivates 13,000,000 acres of land, produces $335,000,000 of wealth per annum, constitutes 53 per cent of our agricultural population and if we add to the tenant farmer the farm laborer, we have 320,000 farmers of voting age.

Where The Tenant Farmer Lives.

The commanding position which our tenant farmer occupies in our civilization and the pivotal place he holds in this campaign justifies the inquiry of, who is the tenant farmer? Where does he live? Where did he come from? What is the remedy?

The tenant farmers of Texas are in the main free-born white men. There are 170,970 white and 48,605 negro tenant farmers. There are 92 counties in the state that have no negro farmers, and 57 counties that have from one to 25. The white tenant farmer abounds more abundantly in the black land belt and his principal product is cotton. Collin County, which has more farmers than any other county in the State and is the only county that has every foot of its tillable land under cultivation, has 4475 white and 135 negro tenant farmers. Ellis County, which produces more cotton than any other county in the State or any equal area on the globe, has 4005 white and 563 negro tenant farmers. We have a few Mexican farmers classed as whites but very few of them are in the black land belt of the State. The heavy negro farm population is in East Texas near the border. Harrison County leads with 3306 negro and 1295 white farmers.

The Texas tenant farmer made his first appearance in the Federal Census report in 1880. Prior to that time he was not classified. The record begins with 65,468 tenant farmers or 37 per cent of all farmers and in 30 years—less than a generation—the number has swelled to the alarming total of 219,575 and the per cent of increase to 53 and 2400 farmers per annum are now passing from home owners to tenants.

The Farm Laborer Has His Problems.

There is yet one strata in agriculture below the tenant farmer and which has become his goal, and that is the farm laborer. We have approximately 100,000 farm laborers in Texas and when they board themselves they receive $1.35 per day. Then to the shame of Texas manhood, many farm women work in the field with babes clinging to their skirts as they toil side by side with the beasts we plow.

In presenting the claims of the tenant farmer and the farm laborer for consideration of the Legislature, we do not ask for a legislative cure-all that will make a man whole after God Almighty failed or that will punish a man whom the Lord delighteth to honor with wisdom. The poor we will have with us always and without the able and ambitious society would wither and die.

Let us lay aside strife and dissension that so easily beset us and approach the task with a calm and deliberate mind. The situation may suggest pity to the sympathetic and revenge to the impatient but let us apply sound business principles and be guided by wisdom, justice and common sense.

Let Us All Pull Together.

The tenant farmer is not the black sheep of civilization, the prodigal son of society nor the result of a business accident. He is a capable, honest and progressive citizen. He has become the victim of a social system that has robbed him of the power to either increase his receipts or decrease his expenses and he cannot extricate himself without the aid of the government. He can only decrease his expenses by shortening the shirt of his children, raising his family in ignorance and lifting additional burdens. He cannot, unaided, enter the cheap money markets with his securities, nor house and market his crop most economically and advantageously. He has no voice in fixing the price of the things he sells or buys and he never will be able to barter until he acquires power through organization and legislation.

The Farmers' Union is asking the Legislature to throw a lifeline to the tenant farmer and all farmers are invited to join the Union and avail themselves of the advantages of organization. We have adopted a platform declaring the problems of the farmer to be the paramount issue in this campaign and we have made public a list of candidates pledged to give the interests of the tenant farmer first attention. All that is necessary is for the farmers to stand by the Union. Let us give a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together by voting for Sally and the babies.

In our next article we will invite the city men to come "Back To The Soil" with their votes.

SCORE POLITICAL SAVIORS

The Farmers Mocked By Peanut Politicians—Good Laws Never Made By Mad Men, Nor Wisely Administered in a Spirit of Partisan Strife.

Fort Worth, Tex.—We make no pretense of knowing how to play politics, but we know how to plow, and applying horse-sense to the present situation, we think the farmers of Texas need cheap money far more than they need self-appointed political saviors; a system of rural credits much more than government spies prying into our affairs, and a better marketing system is needed much more than political inquisitions. Taken singly, the politicians have been able to master the farmers and all other lines of industry, but united, we can put the death-rattle in the throat of the demagogues. We do not think that state government should use its power in drawing a dark curtain of suspicion between the farmers and the business men; we believe co-operation a better policy. Shooting up business never made a small city great nor a rich state richer, and no citizen should be compelled to apologize for the conduct of any state official. It is well for all good citizens to pause and inquire if we are not approaching political anarchy. Has Russia much the best of us on political persecutions, inquisitions and dictators?

We want to call the attention of the public to the position taken by the Farmers' Union at the beginning of this campaign in asking that the liquor question be eliminated from consideration, and we point to the present inflamed state of public mind as evidence of the wisdom of our course.

We thought that inasmuch as less than one per cent of our population suffered from the evil influences of liquor, the ninety and nine were entitled to consideration in this campaign; that as three-fourths of our territory was already dry, and the remaining sections have an opportunity to vote liquor out if they care to do so, that one state administration of rest from an issue which constitutes less than five per cent of the life of the state and has received 95 per cent of public attention for the past twenty years, would be fair and just. We have never discussed the merits of the controversy, and on that phase of the subject we have nothing to say.

The Penalty of Strife.

We do not believe the insane should remain in jail, a half million mothers rock their babes in poverty, and a quarter of a million tenant farmers flee like birds before a storm, while the politicians are fighting themselves into silence over the prohibition question, and we have no apology to offer for our position. We leave it for the sovereign citizen of this state to determine at the polls July 25th whether we will eliminate this question from consideration of the next legislature.

We believe that no citizen who places patriotism above partisanship can look upon the present situation with satisfaction or honestly regard its continuation profitable to the welfare of Texas.

It is a fact as old as government that good laws were never made by mad men, and legislation was never wisely administered in a spirit of partisan strife. This campaign has maddened men and prostituted reason; it has sent preachers from the pulpit to the rostrum bellowing with rage and has hurled a department of state into the fury of partisan strife. Is it not time to call a halt?

It makes political hypocrites of many statesmen, and insincere citizens of many men; it makes weak leadership possible; it fouls the air with fanaticism and in such an atmosphere the reptiles of dissension and superstition thrive and demagoguery raises its hydra-head and hisses.

Some of the prohibition orators have memorized a few stinging words which they have applied to the Union in an effort to ridicule the farmers of Texas. We want to say to these peanut politicians—beware—the farmers of Texas will not be mocked. The lightning flashes of discontent light the western horizon, the distant thunder of retribution rolls, and the storm-tossed clouds scathe and boil with vengeance of the men who bow their backs carrying the burdens of civilization, and the wrath of a half million farmers will sweep from public counsel those responsible for such conduct.

Our Legislative Opportunities.

We have had some things to say to the pulpit politicians. We join in the oft-repeated suggestion that a preacher has as much right in political brawls as a saloon keeper, and we also admit that he has as much right to tango as anyone else, but we would rather he would not do so. We think a political bishop can turkey-trot in the name of Christianity as consistently as he can enter into a mud-slinging political contest to the disgrace of his church. Our only concern has been to keep the ministry on a high plane where it merits the respect of the laymen and the confidence of the public.

We think the next legislature can and should open the gate to a new world. That it should challenge nature to disclose her mineral wealth; summon the soil to produce more abundantly and command the wheels of industry to spin more rapidly. With such a task before it we believed the legislative mind should be freed from prejudice and hate, and we still think so.

We farm with a hoe and not with a pen, but we wish we could form golden sentences that call forth the best there is in men. In closing we want to again appeal to the farmers for unity.

United We Stand—

United, there is a new rural civilization rising in the eastern horizon, lighting the lives and cheering the hearts of a million farmers, and its warm rays are melting the shackles that enslave the toiling masses. This great orb of opportunity sparkles like a new-born world as it lights new-found pathways of prosperity, and the buds of hope burst into the joy of home ownership and gladden human life with the rich blooms of power and shed luster upon the hearts of the poor as the skyline of industry expands, revealing a new hemisphere of human endeavor.

—Divided We Fall.

Divided, we face a world of hopeless gloom and bondage saddened with the dawn of each new day as the scorching rays of strife parch our lives and blister opportunity, or indifference, rising like an impossible mountain, hems us in pits of helplessness. Power decays and fills the air with its stench. Hope dries up, and the atmosphere is filled with the blinding ashes of failure. Turmoil, like a wreath of adders, crawls around our efforts and stings us into insensibility, while the iron moan of unrest echoes through the corridors of our empty lives.

Will the farmers of Texas rally around the Union or will they writhe in dissension while opportunity hisses like a serpent as it slides into the dead sea of a lost destiny? The count of the ballots will tell.

Prohibition vs. Temperance

In Germany, where prohibition is unknown and where all the people have been temperate drinkers of wholesome beers and light wines, there is less drunkenness than in Maine or in Kansas—the two most conspicuous prohibition states in the Union.

The same is true of France and Italy. The world over you will find that the really temperate races are those who are not prohibited from drinking temperate beverages such as beer and wine.

Prohibition in Germany, France or Italy would produce exactly the same results that it has produced in every state in the Union where prohibitory laws have been enacted. It would not stop men from drinking nor decrease drunkenness, but it would drive out the mild drinks and encourage men who do drink to resort secretly to the highly concentrated spirits.

If prohibition really saved men from the "curse of drink" it would have more to commend it to the intelligence of the people. But, as the great editor, Henry Watterson, observes in the Louisville Courier-Journal, "It does not promote either temperance or virtue. It arouses a man's passion to frenzy by restricting private rights. It does not reduce drunkards. It multiplies Pharisees and mal-factors."—Paid Advertisement.

Clean-up Notice.

We, the undersigned, appointed as a Board of Health for the town of Hondo by the Commissioners' Court of Medina county, do set apart and proclaim Tuesday, July 21, 1914, as a general clean-up day for the town of Hondo, Texas, and respectfully request all resident citizens to see that their premises, that is the place they occupy as a home or place of business, be thoroughly cleaned by removal of all trash from the yards and lots.

The summer months are here, and by these precautions we destroy so much of the miasma that impregnates the atmosphere and the disease germs that naturally infest all decaying vegetable matter or any refuse that may have accumulated.

Let's use the ounce of prevention so that the pound of cure will not be necessary. We have arranged for wagons to haul to the dumping ground, all refuse that can not be burned, and respectfully ask that you have all such in boxes or barrels at a place of easy access of the wagon.

The members of the Mothers' Club will see to it personally that enough teams are provided to haul off all the refuse, while it will possibly be a day or two before the teams can cover the town, they will positively do so.

It has been suggested, and we hereby request that those who own teams and wagons haul their own trash, thus relieving the Mothers' Club of a portion of the heavy responsibility which they have voluntarily assumed.

Hondo is due a general cleaning up, and let's get together and see how nice we can make it look.

Don't forget the day---Tuesday July 21, 1914. Respectfully,

JOE NEY,
W. H. SMITH,
H. J. MEYER,
Board of Health.

Quit Taking Risky Calomel.

Here is a vegetable tonic that is far better for you to take than the dangerous drug and poison called calomel. You never can tell when calomel is going to "get you." That's the worst thing about taking so uncertain and dangerous a drug for constipation and liver trouble. Calomel is liable to sicken you or "knock you out" for at least a day the very next time you try it.

W. H. Windrow has the mild vegetable remedy that successfully takes the place of calomel. This remedy is Dodson's Liver Tone, a very pleasant liquid that gives quick but gentle relief from constipation, torpid or "lazy" liver.

Dodson's Liver Tone is fully guaranteed, and if you buy a large bottle for fifty cents and it does not entirely satisfy you, the drug store where you bought it will promptly give you your money back with a smile.

Dodson's is fine for both children and grown people.
